enter the text:In a lush jungle, there lived a wise and kind elephant named Ellie. Animals from all around sought her advice because she was known for her gentle wisdom.One day, Leo, a young and boastful lion, challenged Ellie to a strength contest. But Ellie proposed a different challenge: to make the most animals smile in a day.Leo roared at the animals, trying to make them smile, but they were too scared. Ellie, on the other hand, listened to their proble ms and shared her wisdom, bringing smiles to their faces. By the end of the day, Ellie had won the contest.Leo realized that true greatness was not just a bout strength but also about kindness and wisdom. He asked Ellie to teach him, and from that day on, he became a wiser and kinder king.Moral: True greatne ss comes from kindness and wisdom, not just physical strength.
